New Business

Stephen St. Marie noted the Worship Commission had not met since May. New members present were introduced: Barbara St. Marie and Hector Vasquez. Patrick Mason has also joined the Worship Commission and but was unable to attend this meeting. Steve reviewed the role of the Worship Commission and its responsibilities for the operation of all liturgical events as and lay ministries. With the departure of Don Crean from the parish staff, it is necessary for the Worship Commission to take a stronger role in organizing the liturgical ministries. Steve reported on his meeting with Jim Blaettler SJ, Charlie Gagan SJ. He presented an outline for organizing all lay ministries within the parish, and the group discussed it at length. Discussion centered on the role of the coordinators as well as team leaders at each mass. Focus was on identifying participants within in the ministries, updating contact information, training, recruitment, assignments and scheduling. A further appeal to the congregation from the celebrant at each mass for a commitment to the lay ministries will be made.

Liturgical and Special Events

- Fr. Blaettler introduced Mass in Slow Motion of How to Pray the Order of Mass. Suggestion and discussion to schedule over several Sundays.
- All Souls Day, Nov 2nd. Doesn't look logistically possible to have special music.
- Pronouncement of Final Vows for Fr. Blaettler, Nov 4th. There will be several concelebrants. Special music will presented as well as a special hospitality event.
- Thanksgiving Day Interfaith Service. Fran Van Bergen will coordinate, Don Crean will MC.
- Reconciliation Service to be scheduled after 2nd Sunday in Advent. Possible dates include Tuesday Dec 4 or Dec 11. Fr. Blaettler will follow up.
- There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 7:30pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Reed Minuth
